It is the desire of every member of the ship's staff that this itinerary of the 1937-38 voyage in and out of the port of Rensselaer High School may be more vividly and accurately recalled when referring in later years to this annual, the results of their united efforts. Bon Voyage! Classmates and Friends.

SHIP OFFICERS

Like all good ships that sail the seas our noble vessel, the Chaos has a Board of Directors which guides the destinies of our voyage. The speed of our boat and comfort of the passengers depends greatly upon the ability and power of those who man the ship. From the helm of Rensselaer High School, Mrs. Blanche Chapman as president of the board deserves recognition and commendation for her fine efforts to serve us so well. Mr. Floyd Meyers and Mr. Robert Loy who serve as treasurer and secretary respectively, of our board of directors, have shown toward our school much interest and enterprise. We wish to thank them for their sincere interest and loyal support. These citizens have given unsparingly of their time so that our home port will be a more profitable and enjoyable harbor in which to anchor.

A large ship must have many efficient officers who map and chart the courses, bring enjoyment to the crew, sailors, and passengers and see that the machinery is in perfect repair and coordination at all times. At the beginning of the fall voyage of our school the school board appointed Mr. Robert Cleaveland, who had previously been both superintendent and principal, to serve only in the capacity of superintendent. The duties as captain are arduous enough to occupy all the time and energy of Mr. Cleaveland. He is a gentleman worthy to be captain for his unselfish regard toward the interest of the whole vessel is generous and beyond measure.

The board elected Mr. William Jardine to the principalship of our school. He assumed the role of director of all extra-curricular activities and under him the sponsors guided their individual organizations. The calendar exhibited in his office is proof enough of the multifarious activities of our school. His infectious smile, kind humor and genuine understanding of the students and their problems endear him to all.

The office of school stenographer and secretary is capably fulfilled by Miss Ruth Kannev, a recent graduate of Rensselaer High School.

The crew of our ship deserves recognition for its fine work, not only in the classes taught but in the excellent guidance of the extra-curricular activities. Besides being instructors, the crew or faculty is ready at all times to be friends with the students. The close relationship that is maintained between the crew and passengers is evident and makes for more perfect understanding.

Anchors aweigh! Crew and officers report for a nine months' sailing duty.

First Classmen

After weathering the storm for four years, these newly-promoted members of the crew of 1938 find themselves near the end of the cruise. Although they look forward to the harbor of the Future, it is with many regrets that they say farewell to years of work, play, and service.

These enthusiastic seamen enlivened their stay in various foreign ports by presenting two successful plays, "Tiger House" and "Captain Applejack."

They entertained their fellow seamen by dancing the sailor's hornpipe at the Prom. It would be impossible to name all their brilliant achievements.

But at last has come the time when they must leave the protection of their sturdy ship, and start out alone. Ahead of them is the task of acquiring their "land legs", so that they may confidently travel the road of life. At the end of that road lies success.

Roll of Honor

All officers, all passengers, all hands on deck! This is the command of the captain who is eager to bestow honorable awards to the outstanding midshipmen of the cruise. These deserving seamen are selected according to scholarship, service, character, and leadership..

The captain and crew decided to give the honorable reward to five per cent of the second classmen whom they consider already deserving of the honor. The second five per cent of the Class of 1939 will be selected at the end of the first semester in 1939 and the last five per cent in the last semester of the senior year.

Our good ship, The Chaos, is pleased to present the following newly elected members of the National Honor Society.

Senior Prophecy

Herein lies the tale of many persons strong and true.
Some are politicians, others housewives thru and thru
Some are famous circus people, others have a Ph. D.
It has all been written in fun for the Senior Prophecy.

Principal Chuck Beaver in the R. H. S. rules with glee

Inspired and beloved by his wife Vella Lee.
Respectively courted by many but alas
Finally she wed a member of her own class.

In a small neighboring town the Phil Wood clan lives
The lucky wife is—just one guess we'll give.
Why Pauline Tonner of course whom in school days we knew

Sang at all public functions but now there's baking to do.

The cities bright lights flash two familiar names
Kay Clodfelter and Bett Carton have risen to fame.
There's jolly Helen Kanne, a blushing young bride
Of a prominent Wabash doctor, who stands at her side.

For Joe Smith there is versatile fame
We recall athletic ability along with his name.
He's tops as a coach for at dear old Notre Dame
His and Bob Ely's teams are above shame.

Paul Myers is a salesman for the Ford V8 firm.
He does pretty well, but Elmer Lashbrook (the Worm)

Offers stiff competition with his "super-bus eight"
For alas and a day, his car holds ten dates.

Hartman, Anderson, Amsler, McDonald, a fine orchestra make

Away from Jack Benny, they've taken the cake.
Spurgeon, Rowen, Timmons, Zillhart, a fine female quartet

I have stolen away Ina Ray Hutton's pep.

Martha Scheurich, Ida Moosmiller, and Lola McCoy
Have all wed, each a very handsome boy.

Herman Nagel, Louis Nagel and Herman Reed, in order they took.

Now little Nagels and Reeds fill every classroom and nook.

Beau Brummel Shirer, with that Clark Gable look
Has entered the movies, a star doomed to be.

George Tudor's his chauffeur, Mary Herr's his chief cook.

While Mildred Blaze and Ceil Abbott occupy first-maid's nook.

Betty Bausman Morton and (Mrs.) Donald Webb

With their exploring husbands are in some foreign stead.

Edward Saylor, and Don Shumaker, are our big financiers

Though their taxes and their house rent are far in arrears.

Millicent Rose, a swell Latin teacher did make Till Carl Jordan came and his love she did take.
Editor Brushnahan of the "Evening Sun" has been sued.

Because she would not publish Ethel Sage's novel,
"The Dude."

A hospital dietician is our own Gwendolyn Platt.
She has tested so much food she is now very fat.
Dorothy Martin, no occupation could she take
For her demand as a bridesmaid is really quite great.

Betty and Geneva Yeoman in a famous trapeze act
With their bouncers Taylor and Ray Brown, nothing do they lack.

With their business managers Bachelder and Barlow
Their's is a life of great grief and awful sorrow.

Philip Fisher and D'Maris Haniford for the good old Monon toil.

While Lois Kingman and Ethelyn Hamer their lovely wives do boil.

For many a time there's a week, two or three
Before they get a vacation and a good old spree.

Louise Harding and Vivian Jacks a swanky dress shop do run

Their best models lone Overton and Sara Karnowsky get a neat sum

Emma J. Eldridge a seamstress of noted finality
Makes designer Gilmore's dreams a reality.

Bob Walter, Glen Stath and Bill McElfresh a chicken farm run

Austin Moore is janitor of the place, (the old bum)
He sweeps up the dirt from a floor with such pace
That makes Preacher Dean Johnson ashamed of his race.

Melba Teach, Lila Pullin, M. E. Rockwell, our politicians

Are wondering why their hair's turning gray.
They're leading campaigner's for this year's election
To make Jack Carman judge of this section.

Harley Bufkin, the old slicker, is full of remorse
For his Dodge was stolen and he now rides a horse.
This ends the Prophecy for the class of '38.
I'm sure you'll agree that it ranks first-rate.

Second Classmen

After applying the knowledge they have acquired in the first two years of high school and by working steadfastly, they have ably taken over the duties as Second Classmen.

In the fall of 1955, a class of one hundred and eight enlisted as plebs. In that year, several of the members played on the ship's reserve athletic squads and, others were outstanding in deck programs.

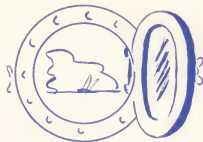

From this class, eighty two reenlisted as able-bodied youngsters. In this position they were outstanding in scholarship and sports.

From able-bodied youngsters they were promoted to the more important position of Second Classmen.

During the winter cruise the Second Classmen presented "Through the Keyhole" with a cast of Dorothy Ritchie, Mary Ruth Luers, Mary Groom, Jean Thompson, Charles Feldhaus, James Knouff and Bob Adair. It proved to be a very successful cast.

Youngsters

Having successfully passed our first test as plebs we have been graduated to the position of able-bodied youngsters. We have become instilled with the importance the second year of our cruise means as a stop over of a well planned voyage.

Seamen of distinction in our group were our athletes, Robert Kanne, Earl Haniford, Elmo Trudeau, and Wayne Milner. In spite of the low ranking position of our class in the maritime scheme the important roles of the operetta "Magazine Princess" were assigned to our classmates Philip Fendig and Phyllis Catt. The scholars of note were Pauline Bishop, and Philip Fendig. Pauline Bishop won second place in the State Algebra Contest.

With a record such as this we feel that we can successfully assume the rank of second classmen.

Plebs

This is the first and most difficult year for the plebs aboard our ship "The Chaos". Eighty-eight of them have yielded themselves and their talents to be trained and fitted for their places. Because of courage and cheerfulness these new plebs are adopting themselves to the pleasures as well as rigors, of a smooth sailing course.

They are fitting nicely into the various sports and activities of our cruise and have sailed through the most turbulent part of the journey. John Hudson was honored in the "B" team basketball tourney as the most valuable player on the Rensselaer team. If one should scan the leading roles in the operetta he would see the plebs were exceedingly well represented.

In spite of the razzing and buffooning dealt to them by the youngsters and upperclassmen of our crew the plebs have never yielded to a moment of despair.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The main objective of the Sunshine Society is to bring cheer and happiness to members of the cruise and passengers of every class, but it also feels the importance of molding high standards of its members. With these ideals in mind we have ended a very successful year.

This fall we entertained 280 members from other ships of good cheer in an all day tour. After many inspiring talks by the officers and mates, an afternoon musical program was given.

At Christmas the Sunshine Society entertained the children of the sailors at the "Seamen's Hall." The spirit of Christmas was prominent throughout.

The annual dance was given in March. The girls donned the toga of the escort and entertained the salty tars.

HI-Y

Clean Sports — Clean Speech — Clean Living.

All worthy midshipmen who fulfill these lofty attributes are banded together for the purpose of furthering these excellent principles among their fellow seamen.

For the first time in the history of the organization the Hi-Y was used in a co-operative capacity with the Rotary Club. Phil Wood and Donald Webb entered the Annual Rotary Discussion Contest. Although neither won, each felt he had gained a great deal from the experience.

Several interesting speeches were made by Rev. Bagby, Mr. Davisson, Mr. Cecil Hudson, and Mr. George Fate. All the speakers gave discussions full of wisdom and good common sense.

FUTURE FARMERS

Blow me down, mates! There be those among us who would rather swallow the killick than sail the seven seas!

The F. F. A. has been an active organization of our ship since 1954. Each year the outstanding project of the club is the sponsoring of the Corn Show. It cooperates with the community in a corn testing program.

This year it has succeeded in organizing two new chapters at Monitor and Klondike schools.

DOLLY MADISON CLUB

Ahoy! Below. What salty tars be these that tempt us with such a delicious array of palatable delicacies.

There were sixty-five members in the class of the "Good Ship Dolly Madison" who enjoyed bi-monthly meetings on the promenade deck. Here we found interesting and stimulating cargo which we were happy to take on. There were business meetings and enlightening talks by local speakers. Special treats were our initiation services, Grandmother's party, Spring Dance, Future Farmer Parties and our Senior Girls' party. To finance our special deck entertainments we served hot lunches to many hungry seamen on cold days.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

*"It's only me from over the sea,
 Said Barnacle Bill, the sailor".*

Sailing—sailing over the bounding main. To the lilting strains of familiar chauties, the crew merrily swabs the decks while our worthy craft plows through foreign waters. The melodious voices of the chorus float gently on the breeze to distant shores. Especially did they entertain us at the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

The band in its own spectacular and pleasing manner played at all the athletic events, adding much to each occasion. The Maritime airs of our Chaos Band, now numbering 80, heralded the highlights of the cruise. The orchestra added to the gay atmosphere of our voyage and under the able guidance of Mr. Frye they made several public appearances. A fine program was presented to the Literary Club by the department.

FUTURE CRAFTSMEN

Sailyards and masts—Hammers and nails—These lusty lads are always ready to repair and mend!

The F. C. A. is an organization of boys who are enrolled or have been enrolled in the Industrial Arts classes. This is the second year of the club, organized to create interest in the field of industrial arts.

The annual open house, an exhibit of completed projects, is sponsored by the members. Other interesting programs consisting of talks by the faculty, students and business men and a trip to the Purdue Open House are enjoyed by the club.

Scientific experiments are presented by the members at their meetings. These meetings provide for much more valuable and interesting experiments which lack of class time affords.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

There's always fair weather—never a mutiny aboard—when the G. A. A. get together. They are an active bunch of loyal sailors—tumbling, skating, hiking and playing games of all descriptions.

Their lusty voices can be heard in the ship's gymnasium every Monday evening when they gather for their regular meeting. Sometimes there is a party with food. The annual initiation services were held early in the cruise at port of the Curtis Creek Country Club. The dances in the operetta were arranged and presented by the members.

RENSELAERIEN

S. O. S. — S. O. S. — S. O. S. —

While our wireless brings us contact with the outside world, our ship newspaper keeps us informed of all the happenings on our good ship, the Chaos. The publications come from the press about every two weeks and are awaited each time with avid enthusiasm.

The personal columns give one an interesting view point of the less academic and more social side of our cruise while the sports column keeps one ever alert for all deck sports and entertainments. A good newspaper is a real treat out on the salty sea and the Rensselaerien is one worthy of praise.

MASQUE AND WIG

Yo heave ho! Ship ahoy! Halyards and hatches! Cast your spotlights upon these seasoned sea-dogs who portray great scenes and fine characters while they man our ship.

The "Showboat" set sail with a very talented crew. The ship's entertainment provided by it consisted of two good plays: "His First Shave" and "Ambition." Selected programs were presented at the regular monthly ports of call by talented speakers. In this way the members develop a clearer understanding of dramatics and poise which comes only after repeated appearances.

Crowds cheering — flags waving — the maritime music of our ship's band. Football summary — a highspot in our cruise.

September 10	Rensselaer 0	Lowell 7
September 18	Rensselaer 7	Valparaiso 18
September 24	Rensselaer 13	Momence 0
October 1	Rensselaer 7	Plymouth 13
October 8	Rensselaer 0	Crown Point 7
October 15	Rensselaer 27	Morocco 0
October 20	Rensselaer 47	Kentland 0
October 29	Rensselaer 0	West LaFayette 13

SUMMARY

- SEPT. 10 In the last game of the season, Rensselaer went down in defeat to a strong Cornell team. Lack of experience among our players was perhaps the chief trouble. I missed a much heavier team, well composed of all veterans except three. Our stars showed a lot of light and promise.
- SEPT. 18 Although we outplayed our rivals at Valpo, we lost a hard fought game. The final score was 18-7 with Valpo on the long end. We doubled the yards gained from scrimmage and had twice as many first downs but still the signal could not come out on tape.
- SEPT. 24 The team traveled to Illinois to play the strong Monmouth team. Although they played man and word, the team secured its first victory of the year. Both teams were so covered with mud that the spectators could not tell one player from another.
- OCT. 1 We made a long journey to Plymouth to be handed a hard fought battle resulting in a 15 to 7 defeat. The boys played well but the backs were against them. Kanne made one 65 yard run which failed to count. The team from Plymouth was a heavy team outweighing Rensselaer considerably.
- OCT. 8 In a hard fought night game Rensselaer failed to conquer Crown Point. They were downed 7 to 0. The teams were very evenly matched and both teams failed to score until a Crown Point man galloped away on the run in the last few minutes of the game.
- OCT. 15 The lads from Morocco conquered us and met a severe defeat at the hands of Rensselaer. The score was 27 to 0. It was a well fought game throughout and the team showed swell teamwork and were really tough in spirit.
- OCT. 20 The Kentland aggregation arrived at Rensselaer and suffered under the lighting eleven from the home port. In what proved to be a track meet more than a football game, Rensselaer submerged Kentland by a score of 47 to 0.
- OCT. 29 Rensselaer traveled to West LaFayette to lose a hard fought battle 15 to 0. It was not until the last few minutes that either team had a decided advantage. This game, the last game of the season, was perhaps the best game. The boys fought hard but could not stop the stubborn West Side eleven.

MIDWEST CONFERENCE STANDING FOR 1937

	Won	Lost
West LaFayette	5	0
Rensselaer	2	1
Morocco	1	2
Kentland	0	5

Standing, left to right: Tudor, Kanne, Smith, Trudeau.
First row: Beaver, McEllfresh, Bowman, Adair, Gwin, Saylor, Burns.

BASKETBALL

In the sectional the Rensselaer Bombers came through to win a very exciting but well played tournament. They advanced successfully by defeating Morocco 27-15, Remington 31-25, Wheatfield 33-25, to the finals where they decisively overpowered Goodland 45-30. Each of the players turned in an excellent exhibition, displaying fine basketball throughout the tournament.

The following week, the Bombers journeyed to Michigan City, there to meet the strong Emerson team of Gary. The team played fine ball and were praised by northern sports writers but lack of height proved to be fatal. Rensselaer, after getting away to an early lead, was never behind until the last few minutes of play. It was a hard game to lose, the final score being 25-23. Emerson was defeated later in the evening by Hammond, who went on to the state finals.

Throughout the entire game Rensselaer's brilliant floor game surpassed Emerson's. Bud Bowman was selected as guard on the All Regional Team while Elmer Lashbrook won the place as center on the second team.

Charles Beaver was elected captain of the team.

The second team under Coach Davisson composed of a fast scrapping squad had a very successful season. It piled up 13 victories to 6 defeats. The freshmen of the squad playing as a team won four games.

Season's Summary

- NOV. 20 A regiment of green Bombers were defeated by an experienced Monon team by the score of 31-23.
- NOV. 30 The Bombers who faced the Coas 3-0 again defeated. The score was a big loss Horace Morris team. The score was 70-72.
- DEC. 3 Hooey! The Bombers showed improvement and defeated a mediocre Kentland team 34-12.
- DEC. 10 The Boys of Bensman traveled to North Hudson where they showed marked improvement and defeated the outstanding North Hudson team by a score of 70-27.
- DEC. 17 The Bombers invaded Michigan City but lost to them by the score of 28-27.
- DEC. 18 Oooh! Smutt received a broken jaw, but the Bombers defeated Lowell, 29-18.
- DEC. 25 The Bombers were defeated by their old rival West LaFayette. Their player Riley by name will be long remembered by Rensselaer fans because of the 21 points he contributed to his team's 77-25 victory.
- JAN. 1 Bombers celebrate New Year's Eve in bed anticipating a four-way journey scheduled for January 1-4. Their celebration followed for they came through as victors conquering on the way Monon 17-20 and West Side 24-20.
- JAN. 1 The Bombers journeyed to the stronghold of their ancient rival, the Remington Rillman. The Bombers had to use plenty of T. N. T. to win 23-21.
- JAN. 7 The Boys of Bensman routed an unusually weak Goodland team 37-21.
- JAN. 14 What a ball game! The Bombers put on a brilliant last quarter and overtime drive to defeat a strong Monon team 30-29.
- JAN. 19 The Bombers were defeated in a tight battle by the Purple Aces of Brook. The bad news was 28-27.
- JAN. 21 The Bombers scarcely exerted themselves to defeat Crown Point 40 to 11.
- JAN. 28 The Bombers were defeated but not disgracefully 36-31 by Coach Stagg's undefeated Monticello Indians.
- JAN. 29 In a slow game in which they showed the effects of the previous night's battle, the Bombers defeated Winamac 33-21.
- FEB. 1 Speed in person! That was the kind of a ball game in which Rensselaer defeated a big LaC Otterbein team. The Bombers played one of their best games of the season and won by the score of 39-33.
- FEB. 11 Shades of Jewell Young and Bob Kessler! Were the Bombers hot tonight? Practically every Bomber Boy was going full steam when they defeated Warren Central 52-30.
- FEB. 12 Shoot! Miss! Shoot! Miss! Those were the Bombers tactics after making a long journey to Clinton. It was just a case of no one being able to hit and the Bombers were defeated 45-30.
- FEB. 16 Tough huh! The Bombers were again defeated by Brook. This time it was in an overtime 33-35.
- FEB. 18 The Bombers journeyed to Fowler and in a ball game which resembled the Golden Gloves Tournament, they won 32-19.
- FEB. 25 What a defense! The Williamsport team which closed both our home and regular season presented the "toughest" defense seen by Rensselaer this year. The Bombers also "clamped on" a defense and won 21-18.

A Queen Aboard

If one should scan the passenger list of our cruise behold the name of a queen would appear! It is not the Countess Haugwitz-Reventlow, queen of the Woolworth millions, Queen Marie of Rumania, or Helen Wills, queen of the tennis court but our own Basketball Queen. She earns her title not by inheritance from a royal family but through energetic and industrious effort.

To add enthusiasm to our deck sport, basketball, a contest was sponsored. The girl who sold the greatest number of tickets was given the title "Basketball Queen". The Chaos is happy to present to you Elizabeth Carton, a member of the senior class as the queen for 1937-1938. Bett has been yell leader for two years and untiringly devoted herself to her task.

8 Another yacht? Gave gifts and passengers board the ship for a fine month's 9 voyage.
10 Seamen gather to organize their individual class. Only a few points given to the 11 mid-all four students are lost.
12 Find a husband meets even. R. H. S. defeated by Lowell on home field. What 13 chance had our judges against their mighty power?
14 Class staff selected. Norma Bachelder chosen to lead the staff and be in charge
15 of all class room data. Paul Myers in charge of finances of class.
16 Moment football game there. Brought home a victory—Oh! What a downpour!
17 Two new clubs added to extra-curricular activities—Science and a Mathematics 18 Club.

OCTOBER

- 19 Where leave for a foathall team to Plymouth with Skipper (not Zipper) Bauman at the helm, who left his sailor garb at home. Unaccustomed to these new fang-dangles—with a zip, zip and hooray. Well, for further comments on the latest safety devices consult Skipper Bauman who'll never go away again sans spate??
- 20 Chaos staff begins subscription drive. Officers Bachelder and Myers well pleased with results of the first day.
- 21 What a day? What a day? 280 glamorous Sunshiners descend upon R. H. S. as she plays hostess to the District Convention of District V. Our own Betty Koven presided in a dignified perfect way—adding much to the great success of the convention.
- 22 Dolly Madisons feed the Future Farmers in gymnasium of the ship. What appetites these farmers have!
- 23 Junior class sponsors Invitational Dance. Ask the class treasurer or Leroy how the finances of it were?
- 24 Watch the birds, please. Mid-hippen smile sappishly while cameras click.
- 25 Vacation!!! All ashore that's going ashore. Our crew off to Indianapolis to refresh their minds and interest by a few inspirational and stirring speeches. Will Durant, famed philosopher, was the outstanding speaker.
- 26 Sunshiner Girls begin campaign for bottle of manna. Oh so many bottles of — — — vanilla. Yo, ho, ho, ho, and a making of vanilla!

NOVEMBER

- 2 A girl in every port! Gobs get twelve lessons in love from Chappy Downman—an expert writer. "You're the prettiest girl across the river. Pleze tear thies up so no one can read it."
- 11 H-Y Banquet. President Joe Smith presides in a manner worthy of the highest commendation.
- 12 Movie—"March of Civilization." A fine deck entertainment—held audience spell-bound in spite of high seas and strong wind.
- 17-18-19 Corn Show—On the promenade deck—Blighme! Industrious gobs—line banquet—entertainment galore! The sailors prove themselves first-rate farmers.
- 25 Sunshine Girls spread cheer—distribute baskets to the needy.
- 23 Ship program and concert under direction Prof. Carl Frye. Pleb Johnny Timmons does his stuff, to say nothing of Coach Slim Baufman's daughter, Patty—like father, like daughter.
Two-day shore leave. Thanksgiving and turkey.

DECEMBER

- 1 "Thru The Keyhole." Dorothy Ratcliff as Grandma Tierney portrayed remarkable acting ability. Cub Felleous in his military uniform and English accent caused many hearts to flutter. An excellent production by an excellent cast.
- 6 Dugglesby Players. Portrayal of historical events and important personages from beginning of time to present day.
- 19 Ship has a poet laureate—John Moosemiller wins ship's award with:
"Lardie's not very big and not very tall
But the fairest of them all;
When I'm sixty and very old
I hope to have you in my fold."
- 20 Dolly Madisons entertain a few aged ladies at a delightful tea. That isn't all—immediately following this event the club went to the gym to be royally entertained by the Future Farmers! "How many hot-dogs did you eat?"
- 21 Childish laughter, shouts, candy, games and cuts—all make the Sunshine Party for primary children a complete success.
- 22 Santa Claus is coming to town. Crew go home to sit and wait for his arrival—to say nothing of the watchfulness of the seamen.

JANUARY

- 1 Four Way Tourney at Morocco. Rensselaer wins title after defeating Morocco and West Side.
- 7 Goodland game. Two of our players decided to join the navy after the game and see the world by night—But alas! Nightwatchman Slim Bausman caught the salty tars depositing their bits of femininity at their doorsteps at the hour of ——— Gobs Nesbitt and Smith could be seen the following week in the brig. Stowaways! What humiliation!!!!
- 10 Dr. Leon Albert—lecturer, entertains crew and passengers with a vivid and entertaining word picture of Venezuela.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Older people should be able to live independently in their own homes for as long as possible.
- Older people should be able to access the services and support they need to live independently.
- Older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.
- Older people should be able to live in a safe and secure environment.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's services. These include:

- To ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need to live independently.
- To ensure that older people are able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.
- To ensure that older people live in a safe and secure environment.

The strategy also sets out a number of key actions that need to be taken to achieve these objectives. These include:

- To ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need to live independently.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems in the United Kingdom is estimated to be 10% (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has identified the need to develop a new approach to mental health care, which is based on the principles of recovery, self-help, and self-management. The Department of Health (1999) has also identified the need to develop a new approach to mental health care, which is based on the principles of recovery, self-help, and self-management.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems. The Department of Health (1999) has set out a vision for the future of mental health care, which includes a commitment to 'improve the lives of people with mental health problems, and to prevent mental health problems where possible'. This vision is based on the principles of recovery, which are: (1) the belief that people with mental health problems can lead a full and meaningful life; (2) the belief that people with mental health problems should be given the opportunity to participate in decisions about their care; and (3) the belief that people with mental health problems should be given the opportunity to contribute to their community.

The recovery approach is a holistic approach to mental health care, which takes into account the physical, psychological, social and spiritual needs of people with mental health problems. It is based on the belief that people with mental health problems can lead a full and meaningful life, and that they should be given the opportunity to participate in decisions about their care.
